BULL CREEK

Close-knit community group

MADE and donated with love is the motto of the more than 100 women who took part in the All Saints' Anglican Church of Bull Creek and Leeming annual charity knit-in.

Now in its fourth year, the knit-in is the culmination of 12 months of work for the women, who knit scarves, beanies, children's clothing and squares all year.

They then gather together at All Saints' College to combine all of their creations, which are donated to five charities – Anglicare, Charity Link,

Salvation Army, The Shopfront and St Albans Anglican Church of Highgate.

Parishioner Linda Trefry, who organises the event alongside Robyn Ricket, said 2017 was the first year the knit-in had run over two days.

"We collected just over 1000 knitted items, including beanies, scarves, rugs and children's clothing," Mrs Trefry said.
