📍 Luke Barber is the sixth All Saints' College student to receive a UWA Fogarty Foundation scholarship in the past seven years.

All Saints' College graduate Luke Barber has become the school's sixth recipient of a UWA Fogarty Foundation scholarship in the past seven years.

The Fogarty Foundation Leadership Program provides financial support to university scholars, as well as mentoring and learning opportunities from its global network.

Mr Barber said he Luke was honoured to join a line of impressive and accomplished past program participants.

"The experience so far has been a humbling one, and I have had the opportunity to expand my network to include some extremely rounded and influential individuals already," Luke said.

All Saints' College Principal Belinda Provis, said was proud of Mr Barber and the five other past students who have also been recognised by the Foundation.

"Luke was an incredible and dedicated student here at All Saints' College and he deserved this recognition," she said.

"Our teaching and learning program enables students to reach their full potential – be it a university or a general pathway."
