The Pasar Malam Twilight Market at All Saints' College.

In the market for fun

A TWILIGHT market at All Saints' College this Friday is set to attract more than 5000 people.

The event will offer free family activities including pony rides, laser tag and a Nerf battlefield.

Entertainment on the night will include a lion dance, the market will have plenty of wares for sale and food stalls will offer a wide range of tasty delights from bao buns to bubble tea.

A Battle of the Bands will be held, belly dancers will take to the stage and a Taiko On Japanese drums performance will collaborate with Michael Speranza's LED show.

College principal Belinda Provis said the Bull

Creek College's 13th Pasar Malam Twilight Market would run from 5.30pm to 8.30pm.

"This year's Pasar Malam is set to be another wonderful event and a true display of our vibrant and inclusive community," Ms Provis said.

"We look forward to welcoming many current and future families, former students, staff and members of the wider community to the college for an enjoyable evening."

Guided tours of the college's 19ha campus will be offered from 4.30pm to 6pm for anyone interested.
